To Whom It May Concern;

Dear Sir/Madam,

My name is Andrew John Bates. I am an Australian citizen. I understand you are a Legal practice specialising in financial law and I hope you can help with my legal matter.

In 1990 financial bonds (order Instruments) were purchased and made payable to my person as reimbursement from an acquaintance. There was a delay in the exchange.
In 1998 the bonds were stolen. The bonds were stolen from my hand by someone I knew through close friends.
A police report was made. The thief has since passed away ten years ago. (More Information can be provided).
The bonds are now in possession of family and former friends. (More Information can be provided).

I have contact ASIC and have achieved ASIC WHISTLEBLOWER RIGHTS AND PROTECTIONS. (More Information can be provided).

In 2023, I have re-contacted the Australian Federal Police.

I have initiated a case with the Supreme Court of NSW that is the Direction Hearing stage.

- Case number: 2024/00462838

In the future I expect I require the following:

1. Pleadings read in my absence.
    a. Reasonable cause of action addressed as required by the Notice of Orders Made.
2. Notice of Motions I have filed to be actioned.
    a. Defendants served adequately.
    b. OMIT JOINT COURT BOOK served by defendant eight.
3. A Court Order to Subpoena the ASIC Registrar for all details of bonds.
4. A Court Order to Subpoena the AFP for a historical police report made in 1998.

The investment in 1990 was Ten Million Dollars linked to the Share Market.

I have recently sold my property and have money for Legal Fees being $100K.

Yours Truly

X

Andrew Bates
